

Line drawings as shown in all four figures, the difference is that, in figures 1, 2 and 3, outline drawings while in figure 4 you see a contour drawing. The difference is that an outline drawing is just the outline of the subject/object, while a contour drawing shows some of the inner form of the subject/object, still using only lines. Line drawings have no shading; there is no hatching, cross-hatching or blending.

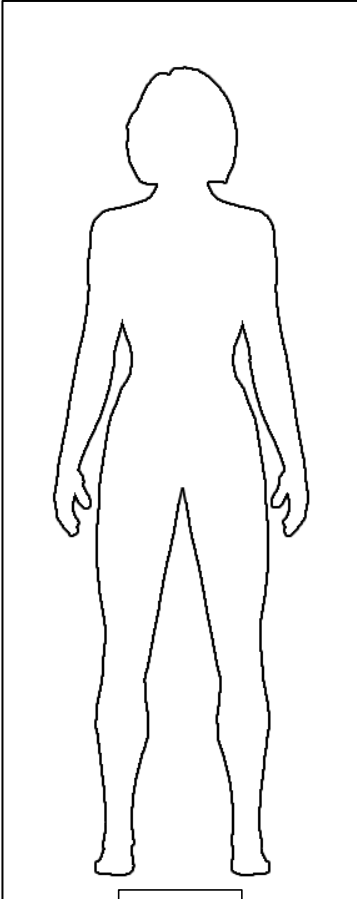

FIG. 1

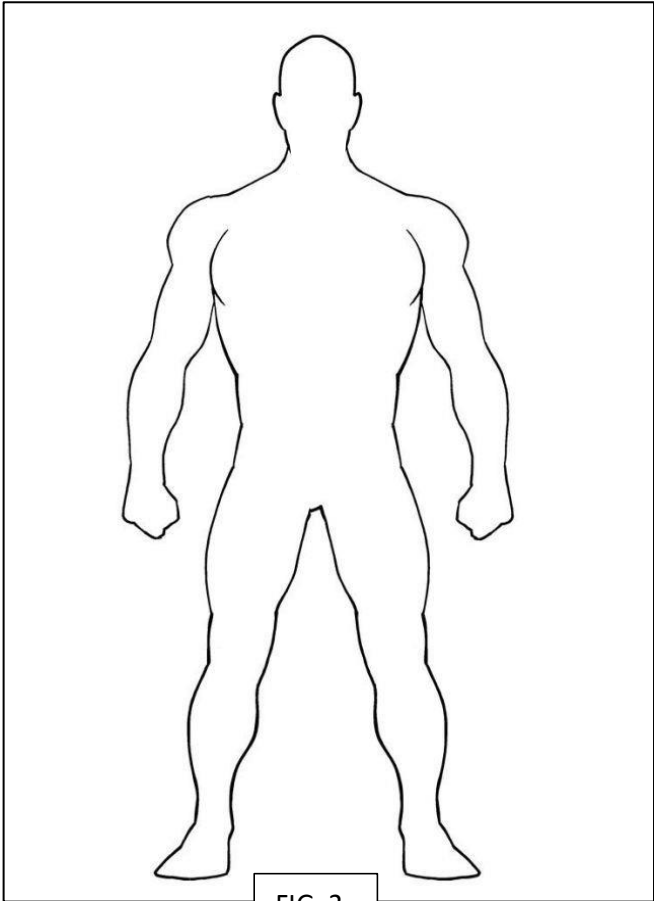

FIG. 2

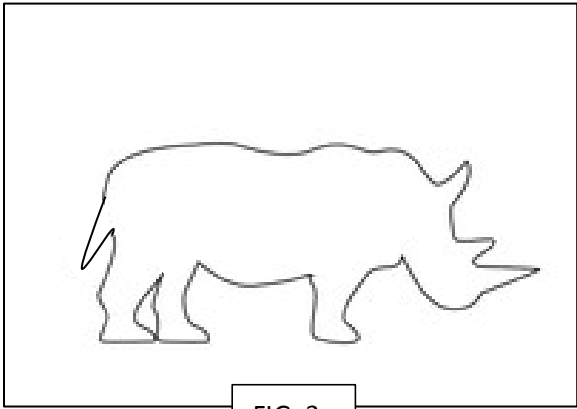

FIG. 3

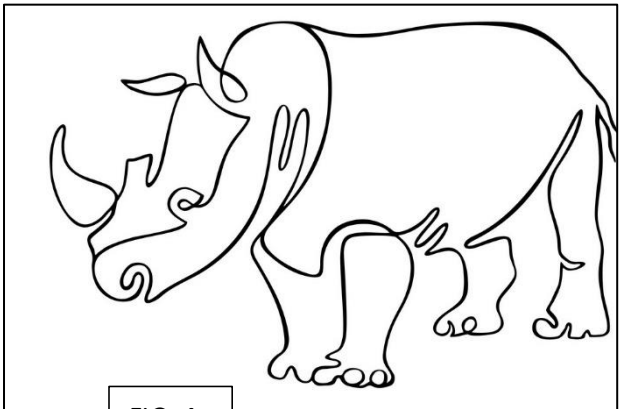

FIG. 4